Although conceived in the year 2005, the School became functional in 2007. To begin with, its Centre for Biodiversity Studies was launched with the specific objective of undertaking research in biodiversity and establishing the Pir Panjal Biodiversity Park. Simultaneously, extension programmes aimed at educating and motivating rural folk, particularly women and School children in sustainable utilization and conservation of bioresources were undertaken with handsome financial support from Department of Biotechnology and Ministry of Textiles, Government of India. In 2009, formal teaching was initiated with the launching of M.Sc programme in Bioresources and Biotechnology. Within a year, this programme was approved for financial support by the Department of Biotechnology, Government of India under its Human Resource Development Project.

From the current academic session, the School introduced two more PG courses viz M.Sc Botany and M.Sc Zoology which received tremendous response of aspirants in the first year.

The School received Rs 1 Crore for purchase of equipment, consumables, books and journals and for inviting eminent biotechnologists from within the country. Each student admitted to the course receives Rs. 3,000/- p.m as stipend and Rs 50,000/- for execution of project work. The School launched M.Phil and Ph.D programmes in 2009.

Department of Applied Mathematics

The Department was launched in 2005, the very year when the University was established. Till the year 2011 it imparted teaching only in Applied Mathematics. Infact it holds the distinction of being the first post-graduate department of Applied Mathematics in Jammu & Kashmir state. The postgraduate programme was conceived with the aim of developing among students mathematical skills and acumen required in real life problems in the fields of medicine, agriculture, industry, trade, finance etc. The Applied Mathematics programme prepares students for jobs in banks and corporate sectors, industry etc.

Under pressure from student community of the twin districts of Rajouri and Poonch, the Department initiated postgraduate programme in Mathematics in the academic year 2013 for two reasons. The first that the curriculum of such course is more akin to the curriculum they pursue at the undergraduate level and second that it has huge job market locally.

The first two semesters of the two post graduate programmes are common. In the third semester the students split into two streams. The fourth semester will be devoted to execution of project that will train students in problem identification and execution.

The Department is focusing on developing mathematical aptitude among college students by organizing Annual Mathematical Olympiad which is hailed by the student community of the state in general and those of Rajouri-Poonch belt in particular.

The Department maintains a rich library, that raised with liberal funding by the National Board of Higher Mathematics, a well equipped computer lab. and a spacious seminar hall.

Polytechnic

The Polytechnic imparts latest technical education through Diploma Courses. The need for instituting these courses was felt on account of non-availability of Polytechnic institute in the twin districts of Poonch & Rajouri. As a consequence, many bright school pass outs who did not have the means to pursue higher studies run from pillar to post in search of vocational training to acquire skills to make their living. The skilled work force that the Polytechnic is generating an asset to meet the requirement of present day society where every home has variety of electric and electronic gadgets that call for maintenance, upkeep and repair. Lower level engineers are also in demand in industry and factories.

While many Diploma holders may prefer to take up jobs on completion of their course the bright ones have the option of seeking admission to B.E and B. Tech. Programmes in this or any other university through lateral entry.

The University Polytechnic is running following Diploma Engineering programmes.
