Parrikar remains CM, for now: BJP

Ailing Leader Admitted To AIIMS

Panaji: A day after Manohar Parrikar dropped hinsis of vacating the chief ministership temporarily on health grounds, the fissures in the ruling alliance and opposition from inside the party has forced BJP to review its decision to hand over the Gao CM's charge to a minister of the coalition partner for the time being.

The president Amin Salurilary that the party has not taken any decision on replacing Parrikar, who is hospitalised at AIIMS in Delhi. "The party will take a decision at an appropriate time. Asof now, the BJP wishes Parrikar as peedy recovery," he sald. On Sunday a three-member central team from BJP consisting of national secretary (organisation) Ran La, organising secretary B I. Santosh and observer Vijal Puranik will be arriving in Goe to meet

Goa CM Manohar Parrika

the allies, party MLAs and the core committee mem-bers of the state unit to gauge the political situation and explore options for an "alternative leadership". On Saturday Parrikar was shifted to AIMS after the PMO decided to fly him to Delhi on medical advice. Sources at AIMS saft Parri.

Sources at AIIMS said Parri-kar's condition was stable kar's condition was stable and he was undergoing treatment for a mild infection. "He will undergo a few ests. Once the Infection is taken care of, he may fly to the US for treatment again," sources said. With Parrikar away from the state, the differences among the coulition partners — Maharashtrawadi Gomantak Parry (MGP) and Goa Forward Parry (GFP)—cament in the open.

came out in the open.
While MGP said a senior most minister—after Parrikar, party nominee krishna 'Sudin' Dhavali-kar is the senior most member in the cabinet — should be given temporary charge, GFP and a couple of charge, GFP and a couple of independents (who are al-so part of the coalition gov-ernment) disagreed. "We got Parrikar to be the CM. That continues and we are not obliged to the CM. That continues and we are not obliged to support anyone as of now," GFP president and town and country planning minister Villa Sardesal said. People are saying that it is high time, the CM gave the charge (to the senior most colleague) to run the good to the charge (to the senior most colleague) to run the good to the charge (to the senior most colleague) to run the good to the charge (to the senior most colleague) to run the good to the charge (to the charge (to the charge) to the charge (to the charge Minister Govind Gaude, an independent, also expressed his opposition to the candidature of Dhavalikar as caretaker CM saying seniority cannot be the criteria.
