Subject: Report of the Extension Lecture on IPR

Sir,

I would like to inform you that in order to aware and sensitize the scholars regarding Intellectual Property Rights the Department of Arabic Baba Ghulam Shah Badshah University organized an extension lecture on IPR (Intellectual Property Rights) on 09 April, 2018 at the Department of Arabic, BGSB, University, Rajouri. Nearly 15 faculty members and the scholars of the department attended the lecture.

Professor G. M. Malik, Dean School of Islamic Studies and Languages BGSBU and Dean, School of Education delivered an extension lecture on the said topic. Professor Malik made the audience aware of the current trends in the Intellectual Property Rights. During the course of his talk he elaborated that Intellectual Rights pertain to a sort of Right that belongs to a person in individuality or in company. One has the right to use his plans, ideas, or other tangible assets without the worry or anxiety of competition at least for a certain period of time. Such rights may include copyrights, patents, trademarks or trade secrets. These rights are enforced through a court via lawsuit. The underlying fact of ensuring Intellectual Property Rights is to encourage innovation and creativity without the fear that any competitor or predator may steal the idea or take the credit out of it.

The lecture proved useful for the students and scholars who got acquainted with the need to secure and safeguard their intellectual rights. The lecture was keenly attended by a considerable gathering of scholars and students.

This gathering was concluded by Dr. Shams Kamal Anjum, Head Department of Arabic (BGSBU) with the vote of thanks extended to the learned speaker, the guests and the rest of the participants.

Thanking You

Yours faithfully,

Dr. Shams Kamal Anjum
